3. Terms of payment

Tour Operators, who want to make use of credit, are required to equip their travel managers with valid vouchers. The voucher shall clearly state which company the voucher is from, the company's contact information and to which museum the voucher applies. The voucher shall further state the date and number of visitors. The voucher must be signed by the travel guide, both in signature and block letters, and must be delivered to the staff at the museum entrance hall when the group arrives.

The Tour Operator shall in advance of the first museum visit have submitted a sample of the voucher for the museum to verify its validity. This also applies in cases of any subsequent changes of the voucher. If the group arrives without correct, verifiable vouchers, the visit must be paid in cash or by credit card and regular group rates will apply.

Tour Operators who visit the MCH on a weekly basis may by separate agreement use receipt lists as a substitute for vouchers. Receipt lists are available from the hall staff and shall be completed with the date, name, number of visitors and voucher group reference number. Receipt lists must be signed by the travel guide, both in signature and block letters. The Tour Operator will not receive voucher copies together with the invoice, only visitors list.

Invoicing will be carried out at the beginning of each month. The Tour Operator is obliged to pay the invoice within 30 days from the date of invoice. We will not credit amounts under NOK 200. Complaints must be sent within three months of event.

CHM will charge 250,-NOK if tour leader needs extra prints for missing vouchers. CHM offers split invoicing for tuoperators and charge 250,-NOK.

4. Denunciation and cessation

The agreement may, without further justification, be terminated by either party with one month's notice. Upon material breach the agreement may be terminated with immediate effect. Disregard of deadline for payment or insolvency constitute material breach.

MCH has the right, with 6 months written notice, to make other changes in the discount.

5. Resale

This agreement is exclusive between the parties. The Tour Operator cannot without written consent from MCH assign the agreement to another tour operator.
